Definite Announcement Expected From House Leaders.

CHANGE DEPENDS ON TIME

Estimated It Will Take Five Months, Day and Night Work, to Rearrange Lower Chamber.

Some definite indication as to what the House leaders really think about the length of the extra session of Congress which is to convene April 4 is expected

Upon the length of the extra session will depend the overhauling of the House wing of the Capitol, the reduction in the size of the hall of the House and the rearrangement of the seats.

An appropriation of $350,000 was made in the sundry civil appropriation bill, which squeezed through Congress just before noon of March 4, for remodeling the House hall. The plans for the change have been drawn, they calling for a reduction by almost half in the size of the House chamber and for the installation of a new seating arrangement, where by the desks and individual chairs will be replaced by narrow shelves and opera

Work Requires Five Months.

The work of remodeling, in accordance with the plans, will require five months of day and night work, and that would make it possible to complete the project between July 1 and December 1. To insure the execution of the project, however, Congress would have to adjourn by

Also many preparations must be made in the way of getting material on hand and expert workmen ready to start the hammering as soon as the Speaker's gavel fell with a sine die adjournment. That involves the expenditure of much

The decision of the question whether or not the extra session will adjourn by July 1, in time to allow the remodeling work to be completed before the beginning of the next regular session in Dejournment date is surely enough fixed to justify the expenditure of money for material, etc., to be ready for use with the adjournment, rests with Elliott Woods, superintendent of the Capitol, and the commission appointed to supervise the remodeling work—former Speaker Cannon, Speaker-to-be Clark, Representatives Mann, McCall, Sherley and Fitzgerald. The commission will meet within a few ays to make a decision.

May Run Beyond July 1.

As some of the House leaders are on chances of doing the work during the coming summer and fall is awaited with cution of the work has been postponed until some later year would plainly indicate that the House leaders think the

Although Congress has also appropriated $72,000 for the installation of a refriged $72,000 for the installation of a refrig-erating plant in the Capitol, whereby the "hot air" in the Senate chamber and the House hall will be cooled, the legislators who are here for the extra session will get no benefit. Supt. Woods expects to do some work toward the installation of the plant during the appring but he does the plant during the spring, but he does not believe it can be completed and put into operation for the coming summer

The Palais Royal

The rule here every Thursday is to clear the establishment of broken lots, remnants and hurt things. Prices are reduced to create a loss in dollars—but the gain of clean stocks and a good reputation are reckoned worth more than the loss.
